RACINE COUNTY COURTHOUSE AND LAW ENFORCEMENT CENTER CLOSED TO THE PUBLIC DUE TO POWER OUTAGE

RACINE—Due to a power outage impacting downtown Racine, both the Racine County Courthouse and the Racine County Law Enforcement Center are currently without power.

At this time, there is no estimated time of restoration.

As a result, both buildings will be closed to the public for the remainder of the day today. County officials are working with the utility provider to restore as soon as possible.
